

READY OR NOT...

Good Employee Relations is Here to Stay!

Regardless of your size, your previous employee relations status, and your current employees attitude toward management, it is in your best interest to review your employee relations practices today!

In this seminar, you will learn:

- Current statistics related to employee complaints and suggestions for prevention and risk management from your company being a future statistic
- What employee relations policies you should consider reviewing and suggestions for improving them in a way that may prevent future complaints
- What types of training you should consider for your management team as well as your employees
- How to stay informed about future employee relations changes and how to communicate your opinions to help prevent legislators passing regulations that are not employer friendly

A seminar for HR professionals at all levels, owners, managers, supervisors and office administrators.
